

Elizabeth Eden is the Chief Executive Officer of Diastole and also serves as a Senior Investment Adviser. An original founder of the firm, Ms. Eden began her financial career at Merrill Lynch, and spent twelve years at Dean Witter as a Senior Vice President and District Manager, supervising the investment of more than $20 billion. Ms. Eden oversees the management of Diastole client assets and serves on the Investment Committee. She holds Registered Representative, Investment Adviser, and numerous supervisory licenses. She was educated at Rice University, Centre College, and The Wharton School of Business.