

Elizabeth Cook has a B.A. in History from Yale, a B.F.A. in Painting from the Lyme Academy of Fine Arts, and an M.F.A. from the School of Visual Arts. She is a founding partner in Diastole, having previously worked with Elizabeth Eden at Merrill Lynch and Dean Witter. Her responsibilities include corporate communications, marketing, and investment research, and she serves on the Investment Committee. She is licensed as a Registered Representative, an Investment Adviser, and a Securities Supervisor. She is also co-author of the Doubleday/Random House book, Super Strategies For Puzzles and Games.