

Susan Brady has recently joined Diastole as an Associate Financial Adviser and Community Outreach Liaison. Sue was previously employed for several years in the commercial end of the community banking industry. She lives in Guilford and has three sons and two little dogs.